So, what is a Hate Incident or Hate Crime?

A crime or incident committed because of who you are or who someone thinks you are.

Quite simply, if because of your age, disability, sexuality, religion, ethnicity, gender (including gender identity) or lifestyle choice (e.g. Goth) someone or a group of people targets you, commit a crime against you, bullies you or harasses you, then this is a hate crime or hate incident.

This may include:

- Verbal abuse
- Offensive graffiti
- Threatening behaviour
- Damage to property
- Assault
- Cyber bullying
- Abusive texts, emails or phone calls
- Taking money from you.

If you are in immediate danger call the Police by dialling 999 (non-emergencies 101).

You can report a hate crime to Victim Support directly. If you would like support we can arrange this at the same time. 0300 30 31 982 (FREE) 24/7.

If it is easier for you, you can complete the form online at www.reporthate.victimsupport.org.uk

Victim Support has been funded by the Welsh Government to increase the reporting of hate crimes and hate incidents across Wales and to offer support to victims of these offences.

Working with other organisations such as the Police, Victim Support can assist in preventing further hate offences through local and national targeted interventions.

If Victim Support are aware of these issues early, we can get the right support in place at the right time to stop the harm these offences cause from escalating. So, if you are a victim or a witness, then by reporting to Victim Support you help us to help others.

Support is tailored to the needs of each victim which may include emotional support, practical support or advocacy. We can also provide you with assistance in reporting a crime to the Police and in attending court, but there is no pressure to do this.

Even if you do not need support yourself, it is still important for us to know what offences are taking place and where.

Call the Police directly by dialling 999 if you are in immediate danger, or 101 for non-emergencies.

Ring 0300 30 31 982 (FREE) 24/7 to contact Victim Support directly. Calls are treated confidentially and you have the option to remain anonymous.

You can also report online at www.reporthathe.victimsupport.org.uk

Victim Support is the independent charity for victims and witnesses of crime in England and Wales. We were set up 40 years ago and have grown to become the oldest and largest victims' organisation in the world.
